

THE CONSTITUTION

The Collegiate Church of All Saints, Derby was founded in the tenth century as a Royal foundation. The constitution and governance of the collegiate church changed over the centuries until the college was dissolved in 1549 and All Saints became a parish church.

In 1927, it was hallowed as the Cathedral Church of the newly formed Diocese of Derby. These provisions are drawn up in accordance with the procedures set out in the Cathedrals Measure 2021 and they replace the Constitution and Statutes made under the Cathedrals Measure 1999 confirmed by an Order in Council dated the 24th December 1999.

The object of the following Constitution and Statutes (“the governing instruments”) is to secure a sound and fair basis for the common life, mission, administration and government of the Cathedral Church of All Saints, Derby. The governing instruments provide for the body of Christian believers who, individually and as members of the Chapter, the College of Canons, the Foundation, the Staff and the Congregation, contribute to the Cathedral’s ministry. Any person or body on whom functions are conferred by or under this Constitution or Statutes shall in exercising those functions have due regard to the ecclesiastical purposes of the Cathedral.

The Cathedral has historically been supported by its Foundation, which has been the main stay of its spiritual life for many years. The Foundation is formed of:

Members of the Chapter;

Members of the College of Canons;

Cathedral Chaplains;

The Chief Officers;

The members of the Cathedral Choir including the Director of Music, the organist and any deputy organist;

The Vergers and

Such other persons who share in the day to day life and worship of the Cathedral as the Chapter shall from time to time determine.

Such membership is purely honorary and contains no vested rights, but members are expected to adhere to the objects of the Cathedral as stated in Article 3 of the Constitution and to do their utmost to promote the work and to preserve the dignity and honour of the Cathedral.

Prior to admission to the Foundation it is customary for all prospective members of the Foundation to make the declaration set out in Article 46(11) of the Statutes.

Unless reasonably prevented from doing so, members of the Cathedral Foundation are encouraged to attend the annual, corporate communion of the Foundation.
